HUMA HASAN

Ms. Hasan was born on September 20, 1965 in Cochester, England. She attended college in the U.K. and moved with her husband to the United States in 1986. She has two children, a son Saboor and daughter Rafia. Ms. Hasan is an accountant and currently the Regional Finance Manager of the Northeast Community Education Center, Inc.

In addition to her personal and professional achievements, Ms. Hasan has devoted herself to many volunteer causes. Ms. Hasan was instrumental in the development of WAFA House (Women Against Family Abuse), a non-profit organization, located in Paterson.

While open to all, WAFA House primarily serves Middle-Eastern and Southeast Asian populations in our community. She is currently treasurer and part-time executive director of WAFA House.

Ms. Hasan's community involvement is not limited to WAFA House but also includes:

- Tutoring elementary and high school students
- Assisting at her local mosque
- Volunteering with the Islamic Relief Organization
- Counseling as a domestic violence response team member in Paterson
- Appointment as a Board Member of the Child Placement Review Board of Passaic County
- Consulting for NJOG (New Jersey Outreach Group)

Her strength, humility and compassion are evident to all who know her. She is truly an Unsung Hero.
